Stock Stolen

Theft of 25,000 shares of stock of the Narragansett Racing Association, Incorporated, was reported to police here today by Morris Goldfine, a real estate operator.

The stock, Goldfine said, belongs to Walter E. O'Hara, former head of the Pawtucket track, and his wife, Mrs. Cle M. O'Hara. Currently quoted at $4.75 a share, the stock has a market value of $118,750.

Goldfine said the stock and other articles and papers were stolen from his office on Court street. He discovered the burglary Monday, he said.

O'Hara, Goldfine said, owns 5000 shares of the stock. Mrs. O'Hara is the owner of the remaining 17,000 shares.

Edmund L. Dolan, J. Walter Quinn and former Representative Robert E. Dinsmore were each sentenced to two and a half years in jail today after being found guilty of contempt of court.

Murphy Ouster Upheld by Court

The Massachusetts Supreme Court today upheld Governor Hurley's action of a year ago in removing Howard H. Murphy as State commissioner of agriculture.

Council for Murphy contended the removal was improper because public hearings were held without the Governor's council being present. The council later confirmed the removal, however.

Ross-Armstrong Go Off to Tuesday

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—The welterweight title fight between Barney Ross, the champion, and Henry Armstrong was postponed until next Tuesday night after promoters received unsatisfactory reports on tonight's weather.

Sentences were imposed by Judge Frederick W. Fosdick in superior court immediately after he had adjudged each guilty of obstructing justice through bribing jurors in another case, in which Dolan and Quinn are defendants.

The judge ordered that serving of the sentences begin immediately, and the three men, their earlier smiles gone, were led from the courtroom.

Attorneys Timothy F. Callahan, for Dolan, and Francis X. Hurley, for Quinn, told reporters they will file writs of error in Supreme court for a review of Judge Fosdick's findings. Dinsmore acted as his own counsel.

After Judge Fosdick had announced the guilty verdicts, and before sentence was pronounced, Dinsmore caused a stir in the courtroom by bitterly criticizing the Judge—whom he had thanked yesterday in a voice which broke.

"I thought you were not qualified to sit," snapped Dinsmore, "as you were an assistant district attorney under Tufts in the Miahawam Manor case, and Curley went into the case and told the truth."

"You can give me what you want at this moment. It does not scare me."

Ignoring the remark, Judge Fossdick said, just before announcement of the sentences:

"Let me say the court feels that the district attorney has done the cause of justice a splendid service."

"The court cannot temporize with things of this kind. It does not propose to."

"If ill-giants, having funds at their disposal to buy jurors, see fit to do it, they have got to take the consequences."

The present case is a direct descendant of Dolan's incumbency as city treasurer several years ago under the then Mayor James M. Curley.

While holding the treasurer's post, Dolan is alleged to have formed the Legal Securities Corporation, which did considerable business in bond dealings with the city.

These included investing finances of various city of Boston funds, such as the George Robert White Fund, in bonds and securities, and it was charged that the city was sold bonds at higher prices than the market.

As city treasurer, Dolan, it was also alleged, had the handling of most of these transactions and in the Legal Securities Corporation were Quinn and Edward J. Supple.

CITY REPAID IN PART

As a result of the alleged setup Dolan, Quinn and Supple were sued by the city under the Mansfield administration in an attempt to recover money allegedly realized illegally from the bond transactions.

The city won its suit, and two firms which bonded Dolan as city treasurer paid up all but approximately $21,600 of the judgment against Dolan, this being chalked against Dolan as a personal obligation.

Then criminal action was brought against Dolan, Quinn and Supple, and indictments were returned charging larceny, conspiracy and violation, as to Dolan, of a city ordinance.

SIMPSON IS CLEARED

Then began the alleged series of incidents which resulted in the contempt of court charges in the present case against Dolan, Quinn, Dinsmore and Harold Simpson.

Supple was not involved, and

EDMUND L. DOLAN

Dolan's Rise Dates From Curley Victory

Edmund L. Dolan's career in the public eye dates from the first mayoralty term of James M. Curley, when he made Dolan an assistant secretary.

Later Dolan advanced to secretary and branched out into the meat and provision business.

Next he went into stock brokerage, and when, in Curley's last term as mayor, Dolan allegedly founded the Legal Securities Corporation, with J. Walter Quinn and Edward J. Supple, his court troubles were on the way.

This corporation, it was charged in the city's suit against Dolan, Quinn and Supple, and later in criminal action which resulted in their indictment, sold bonds to the city at excessive prices while Dolan was city treasurer.

Last Wednesday Judge Fossdick found Simpson not guilty and discharged him from the contempt stigma, leaving only Dolan, Quinn and Dinsmore as defendants.

The larceny cases were about to go to trial last month when it was suddenly halted and the district attorney's office announced the startling contempt of court development.

Following disposal of the cases, Sgt. John J. Walkins and Special Officer Joseph Cunningham of North End station, who were assigned to the jury-fixing probe at the request of Dist. Atty. Foley, were called to his office and com-

How to Save $3000 a Year-- Eat Fish!

Just by making Deer Island House of Correction inmates eat fish twice a week instead of once Mayor Tobin saved the city $3000 a year, Richard Whitcomb, chairman of the mayor's City Hall survey committee, said today.

He listed other "typical" Tobin economies for members of the Springfield Rotary Club.

Mayor Tobin's election, Whitcomb said, was won against opposition of old-time politicians who "all too often considered the right to public service the right to public plunder."

toward a drive against O'Brien, who had been city treasurer of Revere before being elected mayor.

Following disposal of the cases, Sgt. John J. Walkins and Special Officer Joseph Cunningham of North End station, who were assigned to the jury-fixing probe at the request of Dist. Atty. Foley, were called to his office and com-

The case against O'Brien and the general investigation evidence was presented to the grand jury by Assistant Attorneys-Gen. Maurice Goldman and John S. Derham and Assistant District Attorney Garrett H. Byrne, who was assigned by Dever 48 hours after the Gaeta slaying.

As far back as February, 1933, O'Brien had been in accounting difference with state auditors when he was city treasurer.

The financial situation of the city had been grave since the previous summer, with payless pay days for city workers and teachers for 16 weeks as one feature of Revere's official "depression."

According to a report on the Revere finances by Theodore N. Waddell, director of the state division of accounts, made in February, 1933, a number of shortages in Revere accounts were discovered.

$12,461 FOUND IN OFFICE

The report said one was a shortage of nearly $4500 in the accounts of O'Brien as city treasurer, but added that the shortage had been paid by O'Brien.

There was likewise a shortage of $1500 in the accounts of the city collector, which was to be repaid, the state report said.

In 1935, after O'Brien had been elected mayor, Arthur E. Crowley of the state accounting office reported he had found a shortage of $13,277.04 in the accounts of O'Brien as city treasurer, from which post he stepped into the mayor's office. Crowley made this public on October 21, 1935, but prior to the announcement of the audit, $12,461.51 was discovered in the office of the city treasurer during the incumbency of Thomas L. Kelley, who succeeded O'Brien as treasurer on January 8, 1935.

MYSTERY TO CROWLEY

Miss Farrell, who was O'Brien's secretary, disclosed, according to state officials, that she found the money in a shoe box, tucked away in a vault corner.

Her discovery came as she was cleaning up her personal effects nine weeks after the state auditors commenced their work, she said.

Crowley declared that a puzzling feature of the find was that $1900 of the money was in brand new $20 bills, their serial numbers showing the bills were issued after the shortage was discovered.

At a Revere city council meeting, City Treasurer Kelley corroborated the state auditor's assertion, declaring he was present when the money was found.

What Sweeps Cash Means! Wedding Bells for Baker

Walter Polisson is 36 and lives in Gloucester.

For some time now, Polisson has had "the right girl" on his mind.

Only—well, times are tough, and it takes cash for wedding bells.

So that, Polisson explained, is how come he signed his Irish Sweepstakes ticket "Wedding Bells."

He'll get $2651 on Derby Round, a probable non-starter.

Washington street, Newburyport. Swat's a regular buyer of sweepstakes tickets, he said, but this is the first time he ever won. He's unmarried.

'You're Kidding'

Both David Miller and his wife, Dora, are attorneys, with offices at 1 Beacon street, Boston. They live at 57 Kimball road, Chelsea.

"You're kidding me!" was Miller's first reaction when he was informed he'd drawn the second favorite, Golden Sovereign.

"Oh, if we win we'll celebrate our fifth wedding anniversary this August with a trip to Europe," Miller said.

Relief for Family

There are six children in the Doyle family, living at 36 Gardner street, Worcester.

Cornelius, the father, works in a local wire mill. For longer than he cares to remember, he's had only one day's work a week. Despite this, the Doyles have managed to stay off relief. Some weeks ago, too, they scraped together the price of a sweep ticket.

"We'll just put it in the name of 'C. F. Doyle & Company,'" Doyle told Mrs. Doyle.

Now they are in line for—maybe one of the $150,000 or $75,000 or $50,000 major prizes. They drew Unbreakable, one of the expected runners.

Pool Clicks

Henry O'Meara's wife has been in the hospital for three years. There are four children. O'Meara is 38 and a plasterer.

O'Meara and his mother-in-law, pooled their resources to buy the ticket.

"Let's sign it 'All Together to Win,'" O'Meara suggested.

Now the O'Meara family are within arm's reach of a $150,000 fortune. "All Together to Win" was drawn today on Mirz Second, not a favorite, but still a probable starter in the race.

The O'Mearas live at 487 Quincy street, Dorchester.

'Home and Flowers'

Mrs. Margaret Jordan is 35, lives at 373 North Second street, South Boston, with her husband, Martin, a longshoreman, and two children, John, eight, and Michael, four.

What Mrs. Jordan, who is 35, wants above everything else, is a little home of her own "with a back yard with flowers in it, and a place for the children to play."

Her husband bought Mrs. Jordan her ticket. It was drawn today—on Tahir, not a favorite, but still in the running for the capital prizes.

Friend Indeed

Raymond E. Smith, 39 Spruce street, Fitchburg, is the father of two children. He's a bakery wagon driver. He and Mrs. Smith have a friend, Miss Exilia Hackey, 19 Laurel street, Leominster.

Mrs. Smith didn't think much of the Irish sweeps, but Miss Hackey said she'd "go in" with Raymond on a ticket. They signed their ticket "Hackey and Smith." It drew Portmarnock today—a runner, though not a favorite.

'Let Him Go Free Or Die in Chair'

By DOROTHY KILGALLAN
International News Service Special Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 27—Life with full liberty, or death in the electric chair—"nothing in between"—was demanded by defense counsel today at the trial of 16-year-old Donald Carroll, charged with slaying Charlotte Matthiesen, his 'teen-age sweetheart.

In his final plea to the all-male jury, Attorney Sydney Rosenthal pointed dramatically at the handsome, nervous defendant while he urged:

"Gentlemen, this boy is indicted for murder in the first degree. I want you to convict him of murder in the first degree or turn him out. You have no choice in between."

Under New York law, a first degree murder conviction is an automatic sentence to death in the Sing Sing electric chair.

LOST MY NERVE

Donald has admitted slaying Charlotte, two years his senior, in a suicidal pact in which she died first and he did not at all—"because I lost my nerve."

They decided to die, he said, because they were afraid to face the consequences when they learned Charlotte was an expectant mother.

Rosenthal suggested "dominance" in the couple's youthful love affair rested on the slim shoulders of Charlotte.

He asked the jury:

"In a relationship between a boy of 16 and a girl of 18, who is out in the world going to business, who do you think would be the leading power?"

BEFUDDLED YOUTH

He characterized Donald as "this poor, befuddled youth" who pressed the trigger of a gun which Charlotte, grasping by the barrel, already had guided to a point over her breast.

Following the state's summation and the judge's charge, expected to be completed this afternoon, the case was expected to be given to the jury by nightfall.

N. Y. Aids Boston Birth Ruling Appeal

Massachusetts' birth control controversy rose to fever heat today as plans were made to appeal the State Supreme Court's decision banning use of contraceptives by physicians to the highest court in the land and New York adherents of control threw their resources into the fight.

Simultaneous with announcement by the Birth Control League of Massachusetts that the United States Supreme Court will decide finally on conviction of four defendants in a test case, Dr. Hannah M. Stone, aide of Margaret Sanger, originator of the birth control movement, entered the issue.

PLEDGES AID HERE
From New York, where she is a high official in the Birth Control Clinical Research Bureau, Dr. Stone declared:

"The Massachusetts Supreme Court decision is unfortunate to say the least and makes necessary carrying the case to the nation's highest tribunal. It was a far cry from a recent decision handed down by a New York court, which sanctioned birth control information dissemination.

"Our bureau will do everything in its power to aid the battle of the Massachusetts league, to defeat this unjust situation."

At the same time, leaders of Catholic organizations hailed the decision as a just one. Ralph J. Wheeler, newly-elected head of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, declared his organization thoroughly in accord with the ruling.

Other Catholic groups expressed themselves as agreeing with the decision.

In a withering indictment of the court's action, the Massachusetts Birth Control League issued a statement declaring "common sense is outraged by a decision so out of touch with the realities of the world today."

Welansky Denied Bail

James Welansky, 45, former night club owner, was held without bail today for the murder of David J. "Beano" Breen, one-time underworld "big shot" and racketeer.

Welansky was arraigned in Central Municipal court, where Judge

Joseph Riley refused defense motions for an immediate hearing or for release of the accused on bond.

Attorney Herbert F. Callahan, counsel for Welansky, protested that postponement of hearing would subject his client to "unnecessary mental torture."

Police Captain Thomas Connelly, acting as prosecutor, asked that hearing be set for a week from today, to enable the state to summon witnesses.

Judge Riley ordered the hearing for next Thursday.

WIDOW A WITNESS
To be determined then will be only the question of probable cause for holding Welansky, since lower court has no jurisdiction in murder cases.

Welansky did not speak during today's arraignment. He stood in the door between the dock and the detention room, out of sight of most spectators.

Among the 24 prospective witnesses listed by the police prosecutor are persons present in the Metropolitan Hotel when Breen was shot; doctors at City Hospital where he died; Mrs. Madeline Breen, the widow; and Max Chipman, sentenced in federal court yesterday on a dope conspiracy charge.

RECONSTRUCTS CRIME
Welansky, night-club manager of the hotel where Breen was shot to death, was arrested on order of Judge Charles L. Carr, who analyzed evidence gathered in a desultory five-month investigation by Boston and State Police.

Scientifically reconstructing the crime, Judge Carr reached his deductions after combining testimony of doctors, policemen, chemists and ballistic experts.

Judge Carr branded the mystery killer a "theatrical apparition," saying the figure was the figment of a group of witnesses whose testimony was false.

In his precedent-shattering action, he set the scene of the murder in the Hotel Metropolitan lobby with principal and minor actors. After staging the scene, he declared he did not try to determine what connection the subordinate actors had with the murder.

"I do not try to determine, but give my attention to the principal actor," he stated.

He found that Breen and Welansky were standing close together at the time of the murder. Welansky, he said, testified that he saw to one near himself but Breen, he judge then called on science to prove that at least one bullet was fired from within six inches of Breen's head.

To police list of witnesses to be summoned to testify in the Welansky hearing, Thursday, is as follows:

Chipman, Columbia road, Dorchester; Henry H. Davies, Hotel La Salle; Leon Giacobbe, Dorchester avenue, South Boston; Barney Gouner, Holdsworth street, Roxbury; Peter Hedstrom, Peterboro street, Back Bay; Hyman Holshtarsky, Wales street, Dorchester.

Warren Hopkins, Parker House; Anthony Indelicato, North street, North End; Robert Josephs, May place; Genevieve Kaufman, Tremont street, South End; Bernard McGary, West Seventh street, South Boston; Dr. Maurice O'Connell, City Hospital; Shadrach Plenty, Hotel Metropolitan; Samuel Rosenfeld, Ashby avenue, Dorchester; Mary Spellman, Warrenton street, South End; Dr. Philip Schultz, City Hospital; Elias and Theresa Tazler, Montebello street, Jamaica Plain; Robert Tessie, Shawmut avenue, South End, and James Wilson, Humboldt avenue, Roxbury.

Hurley and Rivers At It Again

Controversy between Governor E.D. Rivers, of Georgia, and Governor Hurley, over the extradition of prisoners, flared up again today.

A letter received at the executive office stated that Governor Rivers, without explanation, decided to render to Massachusetts authorities Charlie Carper, of Boston, who became a fugitive last October when charged with failure to provide for his family.

Police Inspector Henry M. Pierce had been sent to Georgia to get Carper.

1100 Mexican Rebels Quit

MEXICO CITY, May 27 (AP)—The government announced today more than 1100 followers of the rebel leader, Saturnino Cedillo, had surrendered and that an aerial bombing attack wiped out a band of 25 which yesterday derailed an international train carrying American tourists.

Nevertheless, more federal troops were ordered into San Luis Potosi, where Cedillo fled his estate and took to the hills for guerrilla warfare a week ago today.

A cavalry regiment and a battalion of infantry were sent from adjacent states, bringing to 11,000 the number now pursuing the recalcitrant leader, who opposed Cardenas' socialist policies and whose army of peasants for ten years gave him the power to rule San Luis Potosi.

None of the passengers was injured aboard the Mexico City-Laredo, Tex., train. The derailment, just outside Jaral de Berrio, 35 miles south of San Luis Potosi, was caused by removal of spikes from two rails.

The rebel band held responsible attacked the village and took $70 from the railway station before the three government planes wiped them out, federal aviators said.

The rebels who surrendered were in two groups of 400 and one of 300, along with several smaller detachments of 20 to 30 each.

Soldiers arrested the garrison commander at Cuernavaca, Morelos, 45 miles from here. A reliable informant said there was a question of loyalty of the commander, Colonel Vizcaino.

Carroll Warns Pupils 'Isms' Menace to U. S.

"Growth of 'isms' in the United States threatens the national heritage for which heroes venerated on Memorial Day gave their lives," State Senator Edward C. Carroll of South Boston told Brighton high school students today.

Speaking at Memorial Day exercises in the school auditorium, Senator Carroll urged his youthful hearers to do their part in safeguarding American institutions.

"Yours is the duty not only of formation of character that aims to preserve the rights of others, but also the duty of enlightening public opinion," he said.

"You must do your part in securing abolition of those things which make possible, even for a moment, the opportunity for the propagandists of Bolshevism, Communism, Fascism, and Nazism to proclaim their doctrines."

Senator Carroll declared American war heroes would be horrified, could they see present day conditions in their beloved country.

"They would see a pestilential virus of isms running through the vital organs of this nation," he said. "They would see a disregard of the principles of justice, a forgetfulness of the duties of the rich and of every man to have the opportunity to live properly in this country."

CIO Man Trails In Printers' Voting

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27 (AP)—Claude M. Baker of San Francisco glanced over unofficial returns here today and said he believed he would pile up a 12,000 vote majority over Charles P. Howard of Chicago, in their AFL-CIO battle for president of the powerful International Typographical Union.

Tabulation reported unofficially from 85 cities gave Baker 25,940 and Howard 14,736. Howard, incumbent and also secretary of the CIO, had been critical of the AFL, while Baker, an ITU vice-president, favored adherence to AFL policies. The ITU is affiliated with the AFL.

Doubts Bottom Reached Yet In Business

By LEWIS HANEY
Professor of Economics, New York University

NEW YORK, May 27.—The business situation in the United States is still in a state of uncertainty, according to Lewis Haney, professor of economics at New York University. He says that the business situation is still in a state of uncertainty, and that the bottom has not yet been reached.

They do seem to think that most business men have reached the bottom, but he adds that the business situation is still in a state of uncertainty, and that the bottom has not yet been reached.

Furthermore, he says that the business situation is still in a state of uncertainty, and that the bottom has not yet been reached.

N. E. Trade Conditions Are Spotty

By HUGH E. BRADSHAW
Financial Editor

Reports of business conditions in New England continue to show a picture of uncertainty. The business situation is still in a state of uncertainty, and that the bottom has not yet been reached.

In the last few days, however, conditions have improved somewhat, and the business situation is still in a state of uncertainty.

Stocks in Mild Rally

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP).—Mild rallying tendencies swept into the stock market today after early selling had dislocated leaders, fractions to around two points.

American T & T	2 p.m. Ctg.
Amesbury	117 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	21 1/2
Chrysler	40 1/2
Douglas Aircraft	40 1/2
General Electric	21 1/2
General Motors	27 1/2
N. Y. Central	10 1/2
U. S. Steel	40 1/2
Westinghouse	47 1/2

There was a general rally in the market today, with most stocks showing gains of one to two points.

Make a note on Consolidated Aircraft for future reference. Companies show up very well. Has an interest in Canada. And as a leading maker of bombing planes, might wind up with a part of the British orders going to the Dominion. That bull market going on in London gold stocks would be more impressive if the headlines were going to real producers. Instead of to prospect shares.

The stock market is still in the building stage, and the end is not yet in sight. There is a good possibility that technical rallies will become more frequent from now on, but a more thorough going test of the bear market lows is anticipated by this writer. First possible support point is fairly close, at the 100-day low.

HOW THEY'VE GROWN--MY!

Four Years Ago—Yvonne, now chubbiest of quins, was just this little bundle of flickerage, like in nurse's hand. She weighed only 2 pounds, 6 ounces, measured but 14 inches long. Combined weight of babies was 13 pounds and quickly shrank to 10. Death hovered constantly around them but medical science won. They lived—now thrived—and now, at 4, exemplify all that happy childhood means.

First Milestone—So high! At age of one, Marie, who still remains tiniest of quins, takes own measures, and, oh, how she'd grown! She then was 27 inches tall and weighed 15 pounds, two ounces. At birth she scaled two pounds. Her life chances were smallest.

right up. Here's Yvonne, seven years ago applying yardstick to self. She stood 34½ inches and was husky child of 31 pounds. Now, at four, she's 27 inches taller and getting to be real big girl.

Who's

biggest? Ha—no body! Yvonne and Annette, both two, figure out how they're doing. They found each other equal in height and weight. They had grown from tiny wrinkled babies to become charming young ladies.

The Editor Says: WPA Administrator Horace H. Henshaw, in an Iowa public address, Congressman, says he must be elected to the House of Representatives.

Chairman of the House of Representatives, Mr. Henshaw, says he must be elected to the House of Representatives. He says he must be elected to the House of Representatives.

And from the House of Representatives, Mr. Henshaw, says he must be elected to the House of Representatives.

"THE RELIEF ADMINISTRATOR MIGHT JUST AS WELL HAVE PUT A SLIP IN THE PAY ENVELOPE OF EVERY INDIVIDUAL RELIEF WORKER IN IOWA TELLING HIM HOW TO VOTE"

The relief administrator's Wheeler comment will find many ears.

There is a suggestion here, undoubtedly, that large numbers of Iowa relief workers would be put into the paid ranks of Mr. Henshaw and the money bags to vote for the man HE WANTS to elect to the United States Senate.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, May 27

THE Republican Congressional campaign to restore the place of party power in the House of Representatives has got off to a swift launching in Pennsylvania.

It is the signal for the opening of the campaign all along the line in debatable States, at a much earlier date than usual. But the Republicans have so much rough plowing to do an early start has become imperative.

TWO MAIN political theories largely sustained by confidential reports are chiefly influencing the Republican campaign.

First in importance is a wide spread concern among Democrats, in and out of public life, over the top-heavy character of the huge New Deal majority in the House of Representatives.

The other factor is the belief that the House of Representatives is too large and too unwieldy to do its job.

It is believed that the House of Representatives is too large and too unwieldy to do its job.

Play Nets Millions In New Hampshire

Last year, Maine broke all her records with a $105,000,000 recreational business on enterprise in New England that has developed through the natural advantages in this section of the nation.

Yesterday, Governor Lewis O. Barron of Maine told of the prospects in 1934 for his state in the making of play pay.

Today New Hampshire speaks!

By PAUL WHELTON

Boston Evening American Staff Writer

It is well recognized in New Hampshire that recreation is a major source of income to its citizens; a fertile field for jobs and thus a considerable aid in easing the unemployment problem.

"Still less important than manufacturing, but producing more income than agriculture, the recreation business," Governor Francis P. Murphy told the Boston Evening American today, "is growing and gives promise of continued growth."

Even though New Hampshire has been professionally and officially interested in the recreation business less than Maine's 13 years, her advance has been just as swift.

IN ADDITION TO THE SUMMER VISITORS WHO GO TO NEW HAMPSHIRE TO PLAY, THIS STATE HAS THE ADDED ADVANTAGE OF BEING CLOSER TO BOSTON AND THE OTHER LARGE CITIES WHICH FEED HER WINTER SPORTS ENTHUSIAST.

More showery of today and tomorrow, New Hampshire and Maine have been the first to develop the recreation business.

Girl About Town

by Ann Marsters

I CANNOT help but feel a great sense of much sympathy wherever readers of this paper happen to tell their friends have their story published. I do not know how to have a story published. I only know that it is one of the most difficult tasks in the world for an amateur to perform.

Ann Marsters

None of the time I have known, as far as I know, I have not received much sympathy from my friends. I have not received much sympathy from my friends. I have not received much sympathy from my friends.

Of course, there are the exceptional cases in which an amateur writer's work is recognized by some one like Fred Waring or Rudy Vallee, who, if the song happens to be "terrible," will introduce it.

Such was the case of two young girls, Kay and Sue Weiner, who wrote a song, called "Rock It For Me," and showed it to Chas. Waring when he had been at Leveaux in Boston. Chas. Waring took it of it, with Ella Fitzgerald as the singer.

Then, Fred Waring heard the song when he was last in Boston. And Fred Waring, who had with a publishing house, promptly signed it. The "pluggers" got busy on a national scale. I have been rocking it to a frazzle in my car for a month. And now Miltie, I have a recording of it.

So that's one of the exceptions. Writing one's first story is a very hard task. It is a task which is not to be undertaken lightly. It is a task which is not to be undertaken lightly. It is a task which is not to be undertaken lightly.

future for the simple reason that they have become outmoded and almost too old-fashioned.

However, we do not believe that as many fields are as featureless as the warnings of the old folks to aspiring youth might suggest. We sometimes think that a lot of the old folks are trying to make sure that there will be future to their fields by this very advice to the youngsters to keep out.

SOMEONE has to take the places of the old folks when they check out.

Our own private message to the youngsters is to pay no attention to the croakings of the old folks about the future of any field in which they find ambition lies.

Because things are tough in every field of endeavor right now is no sign that they are always going to remain that way. If you ask around among the old folks you will find that things were tough enough when they started out. We have seldom encountered a veteran in any field who was willing to admit that everything was rosy for him right from the start.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE R. L.

S. G. I. Suddenly I am a girl again. I am a girl again. I am a girl again.

We are a girl again. We are a girl again. We are a girl again.

I can't know whether I've reached a goal. I can't know whether I've reached a goal. I can't know whether I've reached a goal.

Take, for example, our attempt to reach a goal. We are a girl again. We are a girl again. We are a girl again.

But do you see anyone getting into a goal? I don't see anyone getting into a goal. I don't see anyone getting into a goal.

Stranger of fact, a street car is a goal. It is a goal. It is a goal. It is a goal.

WHEREFORE it gives the greatest pleasure to the world. It gives the greatest pleasure to the world. It gives the greatest pleasure to the world.

Dear Miss Robinson. I am a girl again. I am a girl again. I am a girl again.

I have been just an ordinary worker. I have been just an ordinary worker. I have been just an ordinary worker.

I look with pride at my little desk. I look with pride at my little desk. I look with pride at my little desk.

I have my responsibilities. I have my responsibilities. I have my responsibilities.

AND TOO I LIKE THE WEARINESS THAT COMES FROM A HARD DAYS WORK WELL DONE. AND FINALLY THOSE DOLLARS THAT ENABLE ME TO PLAY AN "ELEGANT" SMARTLY AND THAT ALLOW FOR SEVERAL TRAVELS FOR THE HOME FOLKS.

In fact, I'm happy in my work. I'm happy in my work. I'm happy in my work.

NO CRIMINAL has fascinated me so much as Inspector Peters more than the Man Hope. He has been in the hands of criminals in the last ten years.

In 1870 Hope, a young man, was in the hands of criminals. He was in the hands of criminals. He was in the hands of criminals.

SEE THE WORLD. I am a girl again. I am a girl again. I am a girl again.

His next exploit was the capture of the Man Hope. He was in the hands of criminals. He was in the hands of criminals.

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL If You Must Have Golden Hair, Try White Henna

By ARLINE GOULD

AS WE READ MIKE dipping into a brightly covered novel found under the seat of a second hand car, far far back in childhood days there was a lady whose hair was a startlingly pure gold. It was so bright and lovely that it was like an angel's. There was a time that it was not real gold, though none of the characters in the book ever suspected it. The reason it was so radiant so exquisite finally the white thing came out was because she had been dipping it in henna.

There is a brand new white henna and it is not an expensive one. You can get it at a beauty shop or a drug store. It is a powder which you mix with water. Then there is an oil and a brush. That's all you need. There is a bottle of special henna you can get at the beauty shop or a drug store. It is a powder which you mix with water. Then there is an oil and a brush. That's all you need.

To learn the name of this white henna kit, which turns any color hair into exquisite spun gold (a complete booklet of directions is included, and the set is triflingly expensive, especially when the usefulness of white henna is considered) phone Arline Gould, Liberty 4000, weekdays until five, or write her at the Boston American, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Nail Polish

There is a new nail polish which is called "Nail Polish" and it is a very good one. It is a powder which you mix with water. Then there is an oil and a brush. That's all you need. There is a bottle of special henna you can get at the beauty shop or a drug store. It is a powder which you mix with water. Then there is an oil and a brush. That's all you need.

Red Sox in Capital Grove Stresses Value of Control

By LEFTY GROVE

As told to Austin Lake
CHAPTER IV

As a sequel to the story of the land-lotter who knocked the Browns out of a pennant, there is also the yarn which Bob Quinn, president of the Bees, tells.

Bob, as a young man in 1890, was catching for Norfolk in the Virginia League. As in the case of Connie Mack, Quinn's team needed pitchers. Quinn heard of a lad from down country who had something of a reputation, and went on a still hunt for him.

After a week or two he located the young man in a small town called on the edge of a muddy stream. He was at the first and after a while he had a thin stick and a bedraggled woman. Quinn went at him suspiciously. "Does Babe Blankenship live here?" asked Quinn, removing his hat respectfully.

"Hes down that way fishin'," grunted the woman, jerking her thumb over a shoulder and adding, "He don't never do nothin' but fish and loaf."

She enough, half a mile downstream Quinn found a lanky youth, barefoot and clad in dirty overalls, lying on the bank with a fishing pole stuck in the mud nearby. A cut-throat boy was with him, and now called Quinn relates the lanky one would draw to the boy.

"Yo' all gotta bite. Yo' better pull him in."

Quinn and the woman went after him.

"I ain't lookin' for a job, mister," objected the lad.

Kid Hurlers To Oppose Senators

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Having little else to do, the top down here from Cleveland, the Red Sox checked up on their season's showing.

And despite the fact that they started worst in that game and were in losing in several other disappointing games, they were not at all discouraged.

They figured they had a few things to break down, but they were not at all discouraged.

SOUTHPAWS, BEWARE!

Anytime a National League manager sends a southpaw against the Bees, Casey Stengel has a sleeve full of aces . . . For obvious reasons, "Old Case" didn't spring his new lineup on Bill McKeechie until yesterday . . . If he had, the Bees wouldn't have grabbed the spotlight by overcoming an eight run deficit in the first game with the Reds . . . However, he had his aces in action yesterday, and it's likely for Mr. Lee Grissom the game was washed out . . . With Bobby Reis in left field, Gilly English at third and Johnny Conney at first, the Bees present a lineup with but one left hand hitter, Gene Moore.

Lee Grissom

Moreover, Reis, Conney and English "murder" left handed pitching. They were responsible for the Bees coming from behind to tie the Cards in the second game in St. Louis, and the next day they beat the Cards, 5 to 2, behind the eight hit pitching of Ed Shaffer . . . Sebastian Smith, the scholastic sensation from Buffalo, will report to the Hartford Babe Bees within a fortnight . . . The Red Sox . . . Al Lopez made some enticing overtures to Smith but the Bees beat the Fenway Parkers to the youngster . . . Al Lopez has lost the use of the joint of his right thumb . . . But, through a device conceived by Dr. Eddie O'Brien, Al's thumb has been set in a bent position, Smith will allow him to grip a baseball . . . Mrs. Warren Board, Charles River, slipped around Oakley yesterday in 35 blows, while beating Delorah Verry, the state champion, 4 and 3 . . . GRIMES

MR. BOSTON

Max Will Kayo } McCoy-Lewis
Louis, Says Jacobs } Bout Planned

By JACK CONWAY

NEW YORK, May 27—I met Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling and Tony Galento, as I was stepping out of Mike Jacobs' Twentieth Century Club office. Joe, as usual, was puffing away at a large cigar, and looking as if the world did not owe him anything as far as good times are concerned.

MR. BOSTON

"How's Schmeling?" I asked. Joe moved nearer to me, and seized the lapel of my coat.

"You have been around Schmeling's training camps since he first came to America," said Joe with considerable emphasis. "And when you see him at Speculator Lake you will agree that he never was in better condition than he is in right now."

"Max could step in and knock Louis out tonight,"

"So you expect Schmeling to win by a knockout," I said.

"Of course," went on Jacobs. "Schmeling has Louis' number. That is why Louis wouldn't go through with his bout with Schmeling last September as he originally agreed to do."

"Louis talked about having injured his right hand against Tommy Farr, but that was only the excuse for running out on Max."

"During the past year Schmeling has been through four training periods. That is why he looks so good at this early stage of his training for his battle with Louis."

Plans Galento Match With Baer

I ASKED JACOBS if he was going to accept "Rip" Valenti's offer for a bout between Al McCoy and Tony Galento in Boston.

"I have other plans for Galento," declared Jacobs. "What do you think would be the hottest summer match for Galento in New York?"

I suggested the name of Max Baer.

"You called it," went on Jacobs. "Galento and Baer will draw $500,000 in one of the hall parks. It is one of those daffy matches between a couple of daffy guys that will appeal to the public."

"Baer is a cinch to hit, and so Tony will knock him out."

"If Baer won't fight Galento, we'll take on Tommy Farr. Farr is in England, where he is likely to meet Jack Doyle, but he will return to this country by the summer."

"The Galento plans will not be definitely decided on until after the Louis-Schmeling bout."

"Galento would draw $150,000 against John Henry Lewis, world light heavyweight champion, in Philadelphia. I think Tony would belt Lewis out of the picture."

"Galento has gone over big with the public and Sports writers. He does everything different from the average fighter."

"You know that most boxers try to keep away from newspapermen. Galento makes pals out of the sports writers, and they devote columns of space to his strange actions."

"When we toss a beer and ale party, Tony and myself get more of a kick out of it than do any of our guests."

"If a photographer asks Tony to pose for a picture standing on his ear, he tries to accommodate him."

"The Ringling Brothers circus is coming to Newark in a couple of weeks, and Tony wants to be pictured in the cage with the gorilla. Tony thinks he can hold off the gorilla with a left hook."

Random Shots at Target

Tommy Laird of San Francisco, who visited Boston at the time of the Jack Sharkey-Phil Brubaker bout, is in town, and will remain in the east until after Joe Louis and Max Schmeling settle the question of ring supremacy on June 22. . . I met Jimmy Dawson of the Times, who told me Max Baer, formerly associated with the sports staff of this newspaper, is in the west with the Yankees, covering for the Journal-American. . . Tickets are not yet ready for the Schmeling-Louis bout. . . Applications for tickets are being filed at the Twentieth Century Club. . . These early reservations have passed the $200,000 mark. . . Walter St. Dennis, publicity director of the Twentieth Century Club, believes the Louis-Schmeling bout will be a sellout.

Jack Donnelly, an old time ring referee and a friend of Tom Thorp back in Tom's Columbia days, has been engaged to keep Mike Jacobs physically fit. . . Jack gives Mike a rubdown each night. . . He uses olive oil, a vibrator and alcohol to keep the boss of the Twentieth Century Club in condition. . . Donnelly also supervises Jacobs' diet. . . Donnelly refereed boxing matches in Boston 30 years ago, and says the Boston boxers of those days rated with the best in the world.

Thousands of horse players were disappointed when they arrived in New York to find that the Seabiscuit-War Admiral match race had been cancelled. . . Charley Howard says he will soon be shipping his stable to Suffolk Downs, and declares he is confident the Biscuit will once more win the Massachusetts Handicap on June 29. . . New Yorkers are wondering where Boston and New England fans keep digging up the fresh money for the mutual machines at Suffolk Downs. Al McCoy is training at Lou Stillman's gym. . . Bill Brennan has McCoy signed to collide with Hans Haverlick, Hungarian champion, in Montreal on June 9. . . McCoy will probably oppose John Henry Lewis in Pittsburgh the latter part of June.

Zanelli 10-9 Favorite

Ripper Takes On Kaplan at Garden

Mike Kaplan of Roxbury, who has raced through 22 straight professional fights without a setback, steps into the most important assignment of his short but startling career at the Boston Garden tonight when he meets Ralph Zanelli of Providence in the 10-round feature bout of the Goodwin A. C. ring show.

Zanelli has been made a 10-9 favorite because of his edge in poundage, a margin in power, and his record which he compiled before he was upset twice by George Martin.

The experts figure Zanelli will be back in the stride which swept him by such classy opposition as Bobby Pacheco, Young Peter Jackson, Phil Furr, Andy Callahan and others.

But if the Ripper isn't as potent as in those battles, he'll have some very stormy weather with the nifty Kaplan kid, who may toss more gloves at Zanelli than the Ripper has seen in several fights rolled into one.

A huge cheering section from the Dorchester-Roxbury district will be on hand to root Kaplan home against Zanelli who, quite convincingly, says he'll stop Kaplan within six rounds.

A secondary feature brings Salvatore Bartolo, East Boston, and

MIKE KAPLAN

RALPH ZANELLI

Tony Dupre, Manchester, N. H., 126-pound champion of New England, together in a 10-round return engagement.

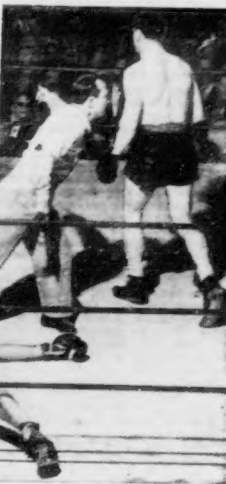

Dupre took a narrow decision from Bartolo in a recent encounter, and Bartolo, improved by several fights, hopes to punch out a clean win tonight.

Dante Yannetti, Chelsea, moves in against rugged Irish John Smith of Quincy in the eight-round semi-final.

In a six, Young Byron, Roxbury, battles Joe O'Gorman, South Boston, in the opening four, George Sandom, East Boston, makes his professional debut against Steve Sauchuck, Danvers.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27 (INS)—Just 10 places remained today to be filled in the starting lineup for Monday's 500-mile auto classic, following successful efforts of four more speedway stars to qualify. The four, together with 19 previously qualified, seemed certain of rolling to the starting line on Memorial Day.

They were Kely Pettila, who relaxed after two desperate attempts to shatter existing records and qualified his car at a sedate 118.827 miles an hour; Shorty Canton, Detroit veteran, 120.906; Al Miller of Detroit, 118.796, and Al Putnam of Van Nuys, Cal., whose 116.791 average for the 25-mile trial sprint was the first to fall below 118 miles an hour.

Move to Seed U. S. Players Next Year

TROON, Scotland, May 27 (AP)—A movement to seed American Walker Cup players in future British amateur championships has started here since the defeat of Johnny Fischer by teammates.

Harold W. Pierce, vice president of the United States Golf Association, may discuss this with Henry Gullen, secretary of the Royal and Ancient, when they meet to talk over the rules before the Walker Cup matches.

British players are seeded when they go to the United States to play in the U. S. amateur. Those who favor seeding argue it is useless to encourage nations to send teams over if players must meet each other in the first rounds as Fletcher and Charlie Yates did this week.

ENGLISH FAVOR SEEDING

Even British Walker Cup players favor seeding. Certainly Scottish spectators, who forsake even home stars to follow Americans, will have no objection to giving the Americans a chance to reach the late rounds.

Exactly the same problem came up in international tennis years ago and led to the present system of seeding which is in vogue at Wimbledon.

Pierce plans to discuss golf rules in general and two seeded players in particular with Gullen. These two concern the possibility of banning the sand wedge and the possibility of passing a rule in the United States to permit players to wipe mud off balls on the greens.

"Every club in the United States spends thousands of dollars annually to keep its greens from burning up," Pierce explained. "We have to keep greens wetter in the United States than in Great Britain and if, as a consequence, balls pick up mud on our greens it is only fair that we have a rule to meet this problem."

BRITISH TITLE "TOPS"

The British amateur championship in Walker Cup years is considered the world championship of amateur golf but under present practice the second best player may be eliminated in a fast-round match against the best.

Racing Pups Interest Dog Fans

The boys up from Florida can't wait for the mutuels to open . . . during the schooling races they keep themselves busy betting each other, dog for dog . . . incidentally, these gentle really know their "pups."

Russ Murray is a bit under the weather having left the hospital too soon . . . but there is work to be done and he is putting in about 18 hours a day getting things straightened out.

George Heustis, the demon publicity man at Wonderland, has never missed a race since the start of the Revere track, is in great form . . . betting against himself in the schooling races, he still can't pick a winner.

Schooling will continue right up through Monday night . . . on the holiday evening there will be a dress rehearsal with Russ Murray checking all around to make certain that all is in readiness for the opening next Tuesday.

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—If Barney Ross is superstitious he'll spend the day throwing salt over his shoulder and collecting horseshoes.

Mrs. Jedzejowska defeated Ruth Wright Hardwick, England, 6-4, 6-3.

congrats on the splendid form his bees are showing—that is all except the Brooklyn directors who gave him the air . . . King George of England will be in the royal box when Helen Wills Moody goes after their eighth Wimbledon title this summer . . . War Admiral vs. Pompon in the Suburban Handicap at Belmont Saturday stacks up as almost as important a horse race as Seaquatic vs. the Admiral . . . Phil Dean is slated to get a starting assignment for the first time in a month when the Cubs return home next week.

It's a shame some major league club doesn't rescue such a capable catcher and fine fellow as Virgil

5 Games Slated In Park League

Tonight, in the Boston Park League, the setting for upsets is ideal.

At the South Boston Stadium St. Augustines entertain the lowly Wilsons of Dorchester. The Salts at the present time are tied for second place with only one defeat against their record, while the Wilsons have managed to eke out one lonely win against right losses.

At Rogers Park, Brighton, a local battle will be staged between the Agnew Club of Allston and the Brighton Civics. Both teams are right up in the first division and the result of tonight's game will have a tremendous bearing on Brighton fandom. Bobby Rich or Jim Pallie will hurl for the Civics while McGovern or Hazelton will get the nod for the "Aggies."

Yates in British Amateur Final

Downed Thomson, 1 Up, 19 Holes

TROON, Scot., May 27 (AP)—Charley Yates of Atlanta today reached the final round of the British amateur golf championship by hanging on to gain a 1 up victory in 19 holes over Hector Thomson of Scotland. In tomorrow's 36-hole title match, the cheerful American Walker Cup player will meet Cecil Ewing, giant Irishman, who eliminated C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville of Canada, 2 up, in the other semi-final.

Yates, who had seen Thomson wipe out the three-hole lead he built up with a two-under-par 34 on the first nine, sank a nine-foot putt on the 19th green for his victory.

By THOMAS C. WATSON

TROON, Scotland, May 27 (INS)—Charles Yates, fidgety young bank clerk from Atlanta, Ga., and lone survivor from the United States in the British amateur golf championship, today entered the semifinals of the ancient classic by winning a forenoon match from the veteran Cyril Tolley of England, 3 and 2.

Yates shot the first nine in 33, three under par, to take a three-up lead and send a thrill through the crowd which braved a downpour to watch the match by sinking a 120-foot mashie niblick shot on the second hole for an eagle two.

Yates' opponent this afternoon, in his last hurdle before tomorrow's final, will be Hector Thomson, the Briton who held the title in 1926 and who today eliminated a fellow-member of the British Walker Cup team, Leonard Crawley, one up on the 20th hole.

SOMERVILLE WINS

Ross (Sandy) Somerville, of Canada, champion of his country and former holder of the United States crown, also moved into the semifinals by beating H. W. Hattersley, of Australia, two up. In his afternoon match Somerville will tangle with Cecil Ewing, English, who this morning eliminated John Stevenson, another Briton, one up.

The American earned a halve on the first hole when both were down in par four after Tolley had failed to sink a six-foot putt, then, Yates cut loose with that eagle two on the 372-yard par four second to take a one up lead. Beginning with that he shot the greatest golf this event currently has produced, his average for the 36 holes played being two under four.

HALVED THE THIRD

They halved the third in par fours, and on the fourth and fifth Yates missed four-foot putts, the first costing him the hole and evening the match when he required a five to Tolley's par four and the second getting him only a halved par three when he might have won.

Tolley negotiated a stymie on the sixth to halve the hole on par five, then lost three holes in a row. Yates played the seventh in par four to Tolley's five, the result of a trapped second shot, on the eighth holed a nine-foot putt for a birdie two, then won the ninth with a birdie four for his 33 against a 37.

After passing the turn, they halved two holes in a row in par fours. Tolley then cut Yates' lead to two up when the American youngster pulled his second into the rough and wound up with a five to Tolley's par four.

They halved the 13th in fives, one over par, and Yates moved back to a three-up lead on the 14th when he sank a six-foot putt for a birdie two.

Red Ruffing Repays Yanks

By Associated Press.

What will all those fancy price tags sprinkled through the roster of the New York Yankees, the big dividends being paid annually by the bargain counter-pick-up, Rufus the Red Ruffing, must wear in the cockles of Col. Jake Ruppert's bankroll.

Down through the years, Col. Jake has turned a goodly portion of his treasury profits into the purchase of and salaries for high-priced ivory.

But big Rufus the Red and his right arm came to Yankee Stadium in a player exchange for one Cedric M. Durst. Now, Cedric was down in the lineup as an outfielder when he got in the lineup.

The baseball "Who's Who" never bothered to list him. So you can see that Col. Jake didn't exactly mortgage the family jewels in the deal.

HANDY MAN OF DIAMOND

Yet, Ruffing has proved one of his most profitable pieces of business. You'd have to go a long way to find a better right-hand pitcher in baseball today.

In seven years with the Yanks, he has had just one poor season. He was a 20-game winner on the world championship outfits of '36 and '37, and, even in 1935, when the club was floundering around, he came up with 11 wins and 11 setbacks. All told, his seven-year New York record shows 118 victories and 76 losses, for a neat, if not raucous, 608 percentage.

He's a hard fellow to know, in Red. When he's in his monkey suit and on the field, it's best not to talk to him. He's likely to take your head off. But he does an awful lot of pitching.

2.5 RUN AVERAGE.
So far this year he has been the brightest spot in what hasn't been an altogether sunny start for Gehrig and company's campaign for a third pennant. In 50 innings, he has allowed an average of 2.5 runs per game—and not all of them were earned. He won four of his first five starts, and then gave way to the "flop." Yesterday he finally got back from the hospital list, took a look at the Yanks' three-game losing streak, and, in his first appearance in 17 days, proceeded to pitch them right back into the money.

HENRY TO WEIGH 154

The new setup for Tuesday, with private agreements and weight restrictions off, was advantageous to Armstrong and the expected result was that his short-end price of 7-5 would tighten as a result.

Eddie Monda, Armstrong's manager, immediately announced his fighter would weigh approximately 134 pounds, one below the lightweight limit, next Tuesday. Manager Sam Flinn said Ross would weigh approximately 145.

Mayor James M. O'Brien was today indicted by the Suffolk County "blue ribbon" grand jury on three counts of larceny from the city of Revere.

Roosevelt to Let Tax Bill Be Law

ARTHURDALE HOMESTEADS, W. Va., May 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced at the Arthurdale Homesteads school commencement exercises today he would permit the five billion dollar tax bill to become law without his signature.

"If I sign the bill," Mr. Roosevelt said in his address, which was broadcast to the nation over the radio—"and I have until midnight tonight to sign it—many people will think I approve the abandonment of an important principle of American taxation.

"If I veto the bill it will prevent many of the desirable features of it from going into effect.

"Therefore for the first time since I have been President, I am going to take the third course which is open to me. I am going to let the act go into effect at midnight tonight without my approval."

The President said he was permitting the tax measure to become law in that way to call attention to "unwise parts" of the bill.

Balances and Receipts

WASHINGTON, MAY 27
Treasury balance $2,393,131,803
Custom receipts $18,392,270

The first count against the Revere mayor charges larceny of $13,257.04; the second, larceny of $2000.63, and the third count larceny of $357.76.

In another indictment returned, he is charged with three counts of larceny in the same amounts "being an elected official and conspiring with the intent to embezzle."

Under the law, if Mayor O'Brien is found guilty of the charges, he can be removed immediately from public office.

Two hours after noon, Mayor O'Brien surrendered at the courthouse to State Trooper Ted Johnson and, with Atty. James P. Brennan and City Solicitor J. Wallace Mahony of Revere, went before Judge Fosdick.

The mayor pleaded not guilty to all indictment charges and was allowed to go on his own recognizance pending setting of a trial date. Asst. Atty.-Gen. John S. Derham assented to this arrangement.

With the O'Brien indictments the grand jury reported "to bill" against Miss Josephine E. Farrell, who was O'Brien's secretary while he was treasurer of the city and when the larcenies were alleged to have occurred.

Then the "blue ribboners" went on with their probe into Revere conditions and heard four witnesses declared to have been working in the North Shore Garage, an alleged horse betting club, when it was raided by state troopers on February 22, 1937.

These four are Patsy Signore, construction worker; Samuel Simmons, plumber; Frank Bishop, carpenter; and Arthur Oransky, garage worker.

The indictments by the extraordinary grand jury grow out of a probe by Atty.-Gen. Paul A. Dever into racket conditions in Revere, brought to a head by the slaying of Louis Gaeta, Revere racketeer and gambler.

Dever's probe ultimately turned
